

PREVENTION OF Offences against the
CHILD Bill, 2009

Prevention of Offences against the Child Bill, 2009

Preamble

WHEREAS the Constitution of India places a primary responsibility on the State to ensure that all needs of Children are met and their human rights are fully protected;

AND WHEREAS, the Government of India acceded on 11th December 1992 to the Convention on the Rights of the Child, adopted by the General Assembly of the United Nations, which has prescribed a set of standards to be adhered to by all State parties in securing the best interests of the Child;

AND WHEREAS, the Government of India has enacted the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection) of Children) Act, 2000 to consolidate and amend the law relating to juveniles in conflict with law and children in need of care and protection;

AND WHEREAS, offences against any child is regarded as a heinous crime, which shakes the conscience of the members of society and is repugnant to good morals and well being of the society;

AND WHEREAS, it is expedient to consolidate all the offences against children in a separate Code bearing in mind international and regional standards, directives provided by the Supreme Court of India, other good practices relating to children and learning from the experiences of other countries.

AND WHEREAS, while we recognize a child as an individual possessing rights, it is imperative to laws and procedures that operate in the Best Interest of the Child and that protect every child from violations of their rights thereby helping them become responsible citizens;

Be it enacted by the Parliament in the (_____) year of the Republic of India as follows:-

Statement of Objects and Reasons

The Bill seeks to achieve the following ends:

1. to consolidate and define the different offences against the child and to provide a legal remedies for violation of the same;
2. to make the applicability of the laws uniform to both boys and girls;
3. to bring the existing laws and procedures in conformity with international, regional and national standards;
4. to set forth good practices, relevant norms and principles for administering justice to a child;
5. to provide stringent penalties to any person who violates the provisions of this Bill, thus, creating a deterrence;
6. to ensure that criminal justice machinery functions, keeping the best interest of the child, as the focal point at all stages;
7. to ensure the speedy disposal of cases, with a view to avoiding delays, which can result in intimidation, retaliation and secondary victimization of the child.
